STORMY SCENES IN THE HOUSE

Mr. Bland Yields a Point in His Seigniorage Bill and the Fon Begins.

A SENSATIONAL DEBATE OCCURS

Mr. Pence, a Colorado Populist, Scores Democrats and Republicans Alike, and Charges Their Action to Influence of Mr. Read-Mr. Pierce Enjoys Seeing Democrats in a Hole. Tariff Bill in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Fab. 26 R. BLAND today yielded the point for which the opponents of his seigniorage bill have UVU been contending the past ten days, and moved to proceed to its consideration without limitation of debate. This was agreed to without objection and the afternoon was spent in debate Mr. Bland, before conceed ing the point tested the house and found himself eleven short of a quor-um. He stated that he could move tomorrow to close debate, and every day until the house had voted on the bill.

The debate was productive of one of the most sensational scenes of the stormy session. Mr. Pence, the young Cotorado Populist, vigorously scored alike the Republicans and Democrats for their attitude toward the bill, and named several Republicans whom he thought had not voted as they should, charging it to the influence of Mr. Reed. Mr. Fithian (Dem., III.) criticised Mr. Patterson (Dem., Tenn.) for the inconsistency of his speech on the floor today, and the one he made before the New York Democratic club Saturday night, and denounced the wing of the Democratic party which was op-posing the bill for their action.

In the midst of a speech by Mr. Hepburn, (Rep., Iowa,,) who censured the Democrats for refusing to count a a quorum, Messrs. Pickler and Ellis, of Oregon, who had been singled out by Mr. Pierce as not voting their sentiments, stated that he (Pierce) had admitted to them that he enjoyed as much as they seeing the Damocrats in a hole, and Mr. Pickler, in addition stated that Mr. Pierce had said be hoped that bill would not pass.

These assertions were vehemently denied as false by Mr. Pierce, and after the committee rose, he made a personal explanation in the course of which he was twice called to order for statements regarding Ellis and Haines, of Nebraska. After the second brench of the rules the house voted, sixty to thirty, that he should not be allowed to proceed, and then at 5,25 adjourned until tomorrow.

THE SENATE ADJOURNS EARLY

The necessity or the anxiety of the D-mocratic senators to arrive at some definite agreement on the subject of the tariff led to an early adjourment of the senate today, the remainder of the afternoon being spent in a Democratic caucus, as a portion of the afternoon had been.

During the forty minutes - that the public session lasted there was presented, in compliance with a resolution adopted last week, the copy of the correspondence between the treasury department and the department of justice as to whether silver certificates is-sued under the Bland-Allison set of Feb. 28, 1878, are lawful money under certain statutes. The senate adjourned

STRIKE AT CHICAGO.

Two Hundred and Fifty Union Workmen Join the Carpenters.

CHICAGO, III. Feb. 26 .- Two hundred and fifty union workmen, employed in the stock exchange building now being erected, struck this morning in sympathy with the carpenters who have been on strike on that building for the past ten days against the reduction of wages. The contractors agreed to concede all the demands of the Carpenter's union this afternoon, but another difficulty confronts them which will further delay the settlement of the strike,

The trade and labor assembly representing the plasterers, electrical men and other union workers who struck this morning in sympathy with the carpenters, has now made additional demands, and until these are conceded the strike is as far from settlement as

The fugitives had not gone a league on the way before their number was reduced to 300 by desertion.

General Bonilla entered the de-serted palace at half-past 9 the same evening, the whole city being already in his possession. Little damage was officied upon the capital by the siege, he bombardment having been directed mostly against the barracks. Good order prevails throughout the city, and all the political prisoners, including Vegas and Santos Solo, have been freed. Every department of the Republic, except Amapala, has formally sclared in favor of General Bouilla, but Governor Villella will doubtless surrender now.

He accordingly took her a few yards was drowned.

He left Key West and went to a place on the west coast of Florida called Chokolisks. While there he worked as a charcoal burner. He got into a quarrel over a woman with Samuel Kellogg, another charcoal burner, and killed him. He then came north and never heard of the Floritz marders again.

On Dec. 9, 1892, Johnson murdered Emil Kuckelhorn, engineer at the electrotyping establishment of Thomas & Wylie, Twenty-fourth street, New York. Johnson entered the place early in the morning for the purpose of committing a burglary. He hid in the loft until night. When the works were closed he went down into the cellar, and there met Kuckelborn. Knowing that he would be arrested, he struck Kuckelhorn on the head with an iron ur, killing him.

Johnson was arrested a few days afterward, tried and convicted. He was sentenced to death on May 18 last,

PETARD IN A THEATRE.

An Italian Audience Alarmed by a Mys terious Explosion.

Piss, Feb. 26 - During a performance of "Othello" at the Theatre Nuevo yesterday a petard was thrown into the auditorium trough a window at the rear of the stage. The explosive missle burst with a loud report and created the greatest excitement among the audience, who imagined that the explosion was caused by a dynamite bomb. Happily the petard did not in-jure anybody and did not do any damage to the theatre. After the explosion the people sprang to their feet and made a rush for the exits, but the conductor of the orchestra acted with great presence of mind, should to the flowing people that there was no danger, told them to resume their seats and ordered the orchestra can be, and all hopes to finding them to strike up the national anthem and, ater, the Carlbaldian hymn,

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE TRIAL

A Hearing Before Judge Martine. Statements of De Lancy Nicoll Indicate That the Defendant's Actions Were Not Confined to Forgeries. The Date of the Trial Will Be Fixed After Notice from the District At-

New York, Feb. 26 PRASTUS WIMAN was arraigned today before Judge Martine in Part I of General Sessions to plead to two indictments fund on Wednesday last by the grand jury, charging him with forgery in the second degree. The forgeries specified are alleged to have been committed by Mr. Wiman on Jan 20, and Feb 6, 1893, when it is charged that he forged the names of Cgden Brower and of E. W. Builinger, thereby appropriating to his own use two checks amounting to $10,580, which were intended to be used in payment of money due the drawses from the firm of R. G. Dun & Co. The statements of De Lancey Nicoll, counsel for R. G. Dun & Co., have indicated that Mr. Wiman committed not only the forgeries specified, but also robbed the firm of sums amounting to upwards of $200,000. The statements of Mr. Wiman's counsel indicated that the trial would show the existence of confidential relations between the persons concerned which would palliate the offence with which

Walker, jr., Mr. Wiman's son-in-law, Judge Martine took his seat. A minor case was first disposed of, and then the clerk called "Erastus Wiman," and asked him how he would plead to the indictments found against him. Mr. Wiman replied, "Not guilty." Gen. Tracy then said:

"I understand that the prisoner is still on ball and that the ball is am- 510 and 512 lackawanna Ave.

Judge Martine answered that it was and the party filed out. The date of Mr. Wiman's trial has not yet been fixed. General Tracey said this afternoon that it would be determined after the district attorney had notified him that they were ready to proceed. BASE BALL RULES.
